ACADEMIC INTEGRITY

Last year several A&S faculty piloted the use of Turnitin.com (a service which helps spot plagiarized papers) with excellent results. Starting immediately, all A&S faculty, full-time and part-time, will have access to Turnitin.com. Faculty may start using Turnitin.com by accessing <http://www.Turnitin.com/login.asp>. You will receive the account ID and account joint password in an e-mail.

Detailed instructions on how to use this service can be found at <http://Turnitin.com/manual.html>. Quick start and step-by-step presentations are also available for download at <http://www.Turnitin.com/tutorial.html>.

If you need help in getting started, or have questions about how to use the program, please contact our in-house expert, Jeff Cain, Director of Communications Across the Curriculum.

GRANT AWARDED:

Dr. Shannon Brightman, Associate Professor of Biology has been awarded a grant from the National Institutes of Health in the amount of $129,586 to support her investigation of the genetic basis of stress tolerance in the soil amoebae, Dictyostelium discoideum. The three-year award period begins March 1, 2003.

Lectora Software

Dr. Robert McCloud, Assistant Professor of Computer Science, and Dr. Anne Barker, Associate Professor of Nursing, have, through a combination of grant monies across colleges, arranged for a perpetual license for full-time and adjunct faculty as well as students for Lectora software. Lectora provides a user-friendly capability for our faculty to author online course content. Further, it is directly compatible with Blackboard and has the capability of developing e-portfolios.

PUBLIC HEARING ON BANKING

The Political Science Program in conjunction with the Office of Public Relations is sponsoring a public hearing on state banking issues on Wed. March 12, at 7:30 p.m... in the Schine Auditorium. State Senator Bill Finch, a member of the state banking committee in the Connecticut General Assembly, will preside over the hearing. Other members of the banking committee will also be present. This is an excellent opportunity to learn about critical issues involving the banking industry, and to personally communicate with state representatives and state senators.

RELIGIOUS STUDIES DISCUSSION

The Department of Religious Studies is sponsoring an open discussion with Shaykh Abdul Haqq to offer his reflections on the essence of Islam, particularly its Sufi Mystical tradition on Thursday, March 13, at 6:30-8:00 p.m. in University Commons.

FACULTY RECITAL SERIES

Featuring Cassandra Andreas, soprano, Allen Reed, piano and Dr. Ed Malin as Narrator in "A Night in Vienna" on Saturday, March 15, at 7:30 pm in the Edgerton Center for the Performing Arts Theater.

HISTORY LECTURE

The History and Political Science department sponsored in part a talk given by Father Roy Bourgeois, "Guns, Greed, and Globalization" in University Commons.
