SACRED HEART UNIVERSITY FIGHT SONG

Let's raise a cheer for dear old Sacred Heart
Our pride remains for dear old Sacred Heart
From class to field, our spirit yields, the quest for victory

We will lift high the name of Sacred Heart
We stand behind you dear old Sacred Heart
Our banner's high, 'til victory's nigh, triumphant Pioneers!

S!—H!—U!
S-H-U Pioneers, Fight! Fight! Fight!

Red and white fly high at Sacred Heart
Let's raise a cheer for dear old Sacred Heart
Our banner's high, 'til victory's nigh, triumphant Pioneers!

THE UNIVERSITY

The Name. Sacred Heart University was founded in 1963 by the Most Rev. Walter W. Curtis, S.T.D., the second bishop of the Diocese of Bridgeport, to provide an institution of higher education that would serve the people of the diocese and region, regardless of their sex, race, creed or religion. In October 1962, Bishop Curtis announced both the plan to open a college the following September and its name, “Sacred Heart.” The choice of name had a dual origin: it was the name of the bishop’s first pastorate in Bloomfield, N.J., and it was a pledge from him attesting to the value of such an institution. This year, the University is commemorating its 60th anniversary and its growth over the years—in particular, the last 10 years.

The Mission. Sacred Heart University, founded to be governed and administered by laity, is rooted in the Catholic intellectual tradition and the liberal arts. Open and welcoming, the University embraces a vision for social justice and educates students in mind, body and spirit to prepare them personally and professionally to make a difference in the global community.

Sacred Heart University is Catholic in tradition and spirit. As a Catholic university, it seeks to play its appropriate role in the modern world. It exemplifies in its life the Judeo-Christian values of the God-given freedom and dignity of every person. Inspired by the ecumenical spirit of the Second Vatican Council, Sacred Heart University welcomes men and women of all religious traditions and beliefs who share its concerns for truth, scholarship, human dignity, freedom and the betterment of society. It values religious diversity as enhancing the University community and creating opportunities for dialogue in the common search for truth.

Through its curricular and co-curricular activities and campus ministry programs, the University provides the context in which students have the opportunity to appropriate their own religious traditions in a critical fashion. Sacred Heart University challenges its students to think critically, analyze carefully, evaluate with a sense of justice and proportion and convey conclusions in an intelligible and articulate fashion. The University’s focus is to ensure that SHU’s unique mission and culture are incorporated into each student’s journey as a Pioneer. The “Pioneer Journey” is the academic, spiritual and social-emotional learning path that encompasses the student experience at Sacred Heart. A description of the Pioneer Journey has been integrated into the freshman orientation program and its language shared with freshman advisers and embedded in descriptions of some of SHU’s core classes.

The University provides the environment in which its students can develop the aesthetic dimension of life by nurturing their abilities to imagine, create and appreciate. It enables students to acquire a rich understanding of their own cultural and family heritages, so as to assume their responsibilities as conveyors and creators of culture and family. As a community of teachers and scholars, Sacred Heart University exists for the pursuit of truth. It joins with other colleges and universities in the task of expanding human knowledge and deepening human understanding. It encourages and supports the scholarly and artistic work of its faculty and students. Further, it has a responsibility to share its resources and its special gifts and talents for the betterment of the human community.

All members of the University body are strongly encouraged to participate in the wider community through service to others, especially the poor. From its founding, the University has been recognized for its caring approach to students. This approach expresses the University’s belief that each student is born with a unique set of qualities and skills. It respects the personal and academic freedom of all its members, while fostering a genuine experience of community. By so doing, it creates the environment in which each person at the University shares common goals and a common commitment to truth, justice and concern for others.

The Seal. The official seal of Sacred Heart University was introduced on July 22, 1963. The original pen-and-ink drawing hangs in the diocesan museum at The Catholic Center in Bridgeport. The seal consists of a shield surrounded by the inscription, “Universitas Sacri Cordis,” in large letters. The shield comprises a dexter—the right-hand side of a shield (the left, as seen by the viewer)—and a sinister, the left-hand side of a shield.

The Dexter Impalement bears the jurisdictional arms of the Bridgeport diocese. The bridge above waves of flowing water affords an apt expression of the name of the diocese that encompasses Fairfield County, Connecticut, where Sacred Heart University is located. The bridge represents service, which forges strong bonds of understanding and unity among diverse constituencies, while the vivifying water symbolizes the “port” by which new knowledge and ideas energize the scholars who commit themselves to the disciplines of academic inquiry. The Cross of Our Faith above the bridge dignifies the other symbols and identifies the University as a community that celebrates the richness of the Catholic intellectual tradition.

The Sinister Impalement displays the personal coat of arms of the Most Rev. Walter W. Curtis, S.T.D., the founder of Sacred Heart University and the second bishop of the Diocese of Bridgeport. The central checkered bar, taken from the Curtis family coat of arms, suggests the collaborative nature of the learning community, in which each individual member contributes to the integrity of the whole. The two diamond-shaped lozenges, taken from the Costello family shield to honor the bishop’s mother, are placed in the upper portion to highlight the University’s two most precious treasures: Love, the compassion of God as symbolized in the Sacred Heart of Jesus; and Truth, the goal of all scholarly activity. The University shield also honors Mary, the Seat of Wisdom, by including the crescent moon, which is the symbol of Our Lady, under the title of the Immaculate Conception, chosen to signify the years that Bishop Curtis spent as a professor of moral theology at Immaculate Conception Seminary.

The Mace. During the Middle Ages, the wood mace, clad in metal, was an effective battle weapon, but as newer and more powerful military arms developed, it transformed into a symbol of dignity and authority. The earliest ceremonial maces were borne by bodyguards of 12th-century English and French kings; by the end of the 16th century, they were used widely by officials of English cities and towns. Today, use of the ceremonial mace is found in the British House of Parliament, carried before ecclesiastical dignitaries and borne in university and college commencements and convocations. The Sacred Heart University mace, which serves as a visible reminder of the University’s history, authority and status, is carried by the president of the University Academic Assembly. Sacred Heart commissioned a new mace in commemoration of the University’s 50th anniversary. It is a 54-inch mace with two, three-inch, antique, silver-plated brass medals and brass braiding on the rosewood staff. The new mace signifies the growth of Sacred Heart during the past 59 years, as well as its continued commitment to tradition and academic rigor.

Academic Dress. Tradition holds that the cap and gown were first used in ancient Greece, when only youths with wealthy parents or those with patrons attended school. The wise teachers of the time believed scholars should not wear fine clothing and jewels; rather, the scholar should wear workers’ garments. In the United States, the gown commonly worn for both the associate and bachelor’s degrees has pointed sleeves (with a slit for the arm). It is designed to be worn closed. The gown for the master’s degree has an oblong sleeve, open at the wrist. The gown for the doctoral degree has bell-shaped, open sleeves. All gowns are black and without trimming, with the exception of the doctoral gown, which normally is trimmed with velvet, has three bars or chevrons on the sleeves and may be in distinctive color(s) governed by the school granting that degree. The master’s and doctoral gowns may be worn open.

Upon graduation, students of old carried a mortarboard showing them to be masons of the future, destined to build empires or cities or fountains of wisdom on the firm foundation of knowledge. To this day, graduates wear mortarboard caps, symbolizing that they are builders of the future.

The history of the hood, with which degree recipients are invested, dates back to 13th-century England. Whether its origin is ecclesiastical or secular has never been settled. Hoods are two-and-one-half feet long for the associate degree, three feet for the bachelor’s, three-and-one-half feet for the master’s and four feet for the doctoral degree. The hood is lined with the colors of the institution—red and grey, in the case of Sacred Heart University. The trim color indicates the academic degree: white for arts, letters and humanities (B.A.) and golden yellow for science (B.S.). The hoods of those with graduate degrees, as well as the tassels on the undergraduates’ mortarboards, are often in the color associated with the academic field of specialization, as follows:

WHITE Arts, Letters and Humanities	PINK Music	PEACOCK BLUE Public Administration
DRAB Business	APRICOT Nursing	SALMON PINK Public Health
LIGHT BLUE Education and Counseling	SLATE BLUE Occupational Therapy	GOLDEN YELLOW Science
ORANGE Engineering	SILVER GRAY Oratory	CITRON Sociology, Social Work and Criminal Justice
BROWN Fine Arts	DARK BLUE Philosophy
PURPLE Law	GREEN Physician Assistant	SCARLET Theology and Religious Studies
CRIMSON Media Studies	TEAL Physical Therapy

Chief Justice of the Connecticut Supreme Court

The Honorable Richard A. Robinson is the first African American chief justice of the State of Connecticut Supreme Court.

He graduated from the University of Connecticut in 1979 with a bachelor's degree in English and earned his Juris Doctor degree from West Virginia University School of Law in 1984. He was admitted to the West Virginia Bar and the Connecticut Bar and is a member of the U.S. District Court, Northern District of West Virginia and the U.S. District Court, Connecticut.

Robinson began his legal career as staff counsel and assistant corporation counsel for the City of Stamford and simultaneously served as general counsel for the Connecticut Conference of the NAACP. Governor John Rowland appointed him a Connecticut Superior Court judge in 2000. During his time in Superior Court, he served as presiding judge (civil) for the New Britain judicial district, presiding judge (civil) and assistant administrative judge for the Ansonia/Milford judicial district and presiding judge (civil) for the Stamford judicial district. Governor Jodi Rell appointed him a Connecticut Appellate Court judge in 2007, and he was appointed a justice of the Supreme Court by Governor Dannel Malloy in December 2013 and then chief justice of the Supreme Court on May 2018.

Robinson's career is complemented by an array of public and judicial service. He currently serves on the National Board of Directors of the Conference of Chief Justices, as the civil justice committee chairperson on the Conference of Chief Justices and as chairperson of the Advisory Committee on Cultural Competency. He has served as president of the Stamford branch of the NAACP, president of the Assistant Corporation Counsel's Union, commissioner of the Connecticut Commission on Human Rights and Opportunities, chair of the Connecticut Commission on Human Rights and Opportunities, New Haven Inn of Court member, Judicial Education Curriculum Committee member, Judicial Education Committee member, Civil Commission member, court annexed mediator, Lawyers Assistance Advisory Board member, Bench-Bar Foreclosure Committee, Legal Internship Committee member, chairperson of the Rules Committee and on the Discovering Amistad national advisory council. He continues to teach at several judicial institutes as well as present spring and fall lectures for colleges and universities.

Among the awards Robinson has received are the Connecticut Bar Association Young Lawyers Section Diversity Award, Connecticut Bar Association's Henry J. Naruk Judiciary Award for Integrity, NAACP 100 Most Influential Blacks in Connecticut, Connecticut Bar Foundation James W. Cooper Fellows, Life Fellow, Commission on Human Rights and Opportunities' Alvin W. Penn Award for Excellence in Leadership, Ebony Magazine Power 100 Award, Quinnipiac School of Law Black Student Association Thurgood Marshall Award and the American Board of Trial Advocates Judicial Excellence Award.

Robinson is also a fourth-degree black belt who enjoys occasionally sparring with—and losing to—his sixth-degree black belt wife.

JEFFREY A. FLAKS

President and Chief Executive Officer at Hartford HealthCare

Jeffrey A. Flaks is one of health care's most progressive leaders, transforming care delivery over the course of nearly three decades. As president and chief executive officer of Hartford HealthCare, he leads a $5.4 billion enterprise caring for more than 1.7 million patients and customers—with a clear focus on transforming health care to ensure every patient receives the highest level of care that is more accessible, more equitable and more affordable.

Hartford HealthCare's network is an integrated ecosystem across more than 400 locations, unified by its innovative Access Center and singular, electronic health record and imaging system. Hartford HealthCare is a vital contributor to Connecticut's community and the economy as the second largest private employer in the state, with 35,000 colleagues including 4,000 providers on its medical staff.

A bold and visionary leader, Flaks championed the institute model at Hartford HealthCare, which offers the highest standards of integrated care across six clinical areas. Through this model, Hartford HealthCare's Cancer Institute became the charter member of the Memorial Sloan Kettering Cancer Alliance, extending access to world-renowned cancer research in Connecticut. The Heart & Vascular Institute is consistently recognized as one of the best programs in the nation, bringing the life-saving gift of heart transplant to more patients than any other organization across New England.

The award-winning Bone & Joint Institute and Connecticut Orthopaedic Institute helped Hartford HealthCare usher in a new era for musculoskeletal care in New England, providing access to sub-specialty orthopedic expertise and innovative sports rehabilitation and analysis programs.

Flaks began his tenure at Hartford HealthCare in 2004. He is a proud Connecticut native who is passionate about the culture of the organization. He believes business leaders must lead by example and has made a commitment to creating an organization that values its colleagues and celebrates diversity and inclusion.

The National Association of Hispanic Healthcare Executives honored Flaks for his leadership, and he was appointed to the American Hospital Association's Health Systems Council. He also was elected to and served on the board of trustees of George Washington University and received the Distinguished Alumnus of the Year and Alumni Service awards.

Flaks has been recognized extensively within the community and the health care industry, receiving numerous honors throughout his career. He is widely published and has been an invited speaker at many national and international conferences. He was awarded honorary doctorates of humane letters by Trinity College and Eastern Connecticut State University for his leadership. Flaks earned his master's degree in health services administration at The George Washington University. He received a bachelor's degree from Ithaca College.

The preceding does not constitute an official graduation list. The students listed here were candidates for the degree or honor at the program's printing deadline. Latin honors for undergraduate students as announced at the undergraduate commencement ceremony were calculated as of the end of the Fall 2022 semester.

CONGRATULATIONS, CLASS OF 2023!

Thank you to members of the class of 2023 who contributed to the Senior Class Gift Campaign. The philanthropic spirit across campus is vibrant, with graduating seniors helping to carry on a long-standing tradition of giving back to their SHU community. This year's campaign has helped support the Fund for Excellence, which provides resources to enhance the Sacred Heart experience for current Pioneers, while establishing a strong foundation for the next generation.

Students wearing silver cords today with their academic regalia are recognized for making special gifts of $20.23 or more in honor of their graduation year.

Best of luck to all of you in the next chapter of your lives.
We hope you always consider Sacred Heart University your home away from home.
