

Contributors

MARTIN BOLER, O.S.B., is a priest and Prior of Mount Saviour Monastery in Pine City, New York, an autonomous community of monks living a full monastic life according to the Scriptures and the Rule of St. Benedict.

DAVID B. BURRELL, C.S.C., is a priest and Professor of Philosophy and Theology at the University of Notre Dame. With a Ph.D. from Yale, he has been teaching philosophy and theology for thirty years, has taught in Jerusalem, Cairo and Bangladesh, and explores philosophical theology in Judaism, Christianity, and Islam.

ANTHONY J. CERNERA, Ph.D., is President of Sacred Heart University, Fairfield, Connecticut. He earned a Doctorate of Philosophy in Systematic Theology from Fordham University and has promoted international symposia and edited several books on the Catholic Intellectual Tradition.

MARY COLLINS, O.S.B., Ph.D., is Prioress of the Benedictine Sisters at Mount Saint Scholastica, in Atchison, Kansas. A feminist theologian, she has chaired the religion departments at The Catholic University of America, University of Kansas at Lawrence, and the Benedictine College, Atchison, Kansas. Among her publications are "Women at Prayer, Worship: Renewal to Practice" and "Contemplative Participation: Sacrosanctum Concilium Twenty-Five Years Later."

CAMILLE D'ARIENZOR.S.M., is a Sister of Mercy from Brooklyn. An Adjunct Professor of Public Speaking at the College of Professional Studies, St. John's University, she founded the Cherish Life Circle group, and is dedicated to the abolition of the death penalty in the U.S.

JEREMY DRISCOLL, O.S.B., S.T.D., is a Benedictine monk and a priest at Mount Angel Abbey in Oregon. He also teaches theology at Mount Angel Seminary and at the Pontifical Athanaeum San Anselmo in Rome. His main fields of academic interest are Patristics and Liturgical Theology.

CHARLES DUMONT, O.C.S.O., is a Cistercian monk and priest of Notre-Dame de Scourmont Abbey in Belgium. Editor of Collectanea Cisterciensia, he helped establish the English counterpart, Cistercian Studies. He has written extensively on Saint Bernard of Clairvaux.

FRANK T. GRISWOLD is Presiding Bishop of the Episcopal Church USA. With degrees from Harvard and Oxford University, he is lead pastor and chief administrator of the 2.3 million-member Episcopal Church USA. He was formerly Bishop of Chicago, and has two adult daughters.

MARIE JULIANNE FARRINGTON, S.S.M.N., is the former general of the Sisters of St. Mary of Namur. Her community has many houses in Rwanda, and she has spoken out against the injustices there on many occasions.

TIMOTHY KELLY, O.S.B., is the ninth abbot of Saint John's Abbey, C~lle~eville, Minnesota. A teacher of English and theology, and on the Board of the U.S. Catholic China Bureau, he is president of the American-Cassinese Congregation of Benedictine Monasteries of Men.

JEROME KODELL, O.S.B., is abbot of the Benedictine Subiaco Abbey in Arkansas, which originated from the Abbey of Maria-Einsiedeln in Switzerland.

GOTTFRIED BURKHARD NEUNHEUSER, O.S.B., died at Maria Laach Abbey, Germany, in November 2003 shortly before his one hundredth birthday. An expert in Dom Odo Casel's "mystery theology," he taught liturgy at San Anselmo in Rome for decades.

JOHN T. NOONAN, JR., Ph.D., U.S. Circuit Judge, joined the Notre Dame Center for Ethics and Culture during his tenure as a visiting professor at the Notre Dame Law School. With a doctorate in philosophy from The Catholic University of America, his published writings revolve around the relation between religion and government.