THE UNIVERSITY

The Name. Sacred Heart University was founded in 1963 by the Most Rev. Walter W. Curtis, S.T.D., the second Bishop of the Diocese of Bridgeport, to provide an institution of higher education that would serve the needs of the people of the diocese and region, regardless of their sex, race, creed or religion. In October 1962, Bishop Curtis announced both the plan to open a college the following September, and its name, “Sacred Heart.” The choice of name had a dual origin: it was the name of the Bishop’s first pastorate in Bloomfield, N.J., and was a pledge from the Bishop attesting to the value of such an institution.

The Mission. Sacred Heart University is a coeducational, independent, comprehensive institution of higher learning in the Catholic intellectual tradition whose primary objective is to prepare men and women to live in and make their contributions to the human community. The University aims to assist in the development of people who are knowledgeable of self, rooted in faith, educated in mind, compassionate in heart, responsive to social and civic obligations and able to respond to an ever-changing world. It does this by calling forth the intellectual potential of its students, nurturing each one’s spiritual and moral growth and deepening in them a sense of social responsibility. The University is committed to combining education for life with preparation for professional excellence. Sacred Heart University is Catholic in tradition and spirit. As a Catholic university, it seeks to play its appropriate role in the modern world. It exemplifies in its life the Judeo-Christian values of the God-given freedom and dignity of every person. Inspired by the ecumenical spirit of the Second Vatican Council, Sacred Heart University welcomes men and women of all religious traditions and beliefs who share its concerns for truth, scholarship, the dignity of humans, freedom and the betterment of society. It values religious diversity as enhancing the University community and creating opportunities for dialogue in the common search for truth. Through its curricular and co-curricular activities and campus ministry programs, the University provides the context in which students have the opportunity to appropriate in their own religious traditions in a critical fashion. Sacred Heart University challenges its students to think critically, analyze carefully, evaluate with a sense of justice and proportion and convey conclusions in an intelligible and articulate fashion. The University provides the environment in which its students can develop the aesthetic dimension of life by nurturing their abilities to imagine, create and appreciate. It enables students to acquire a rich understanding of their own cultural and family heritages so as to assume their responsibilities as conveyors and creators of culture and family. As a community of teachers and scholars, Sacred Heart University exists for the pursuit of truth. It joins with other colleges and universities in the task of expanding human knowledge and deepening human understanding. It encourages and supports the scholarly and artistic work of its faculty and students. Further, it has a responsibility to share its resources and its special gifts and talents for the betterment of the human community. All members of the University community are strongly encouraged to participate in the wider community through service to others, especially the poor.

From its founding, the University has been recognized for its caring approach to students.

This approach expresses the University’s belief that each student is born with a unique set of qualities and skills. It respects the personal and academic freedom of each of its members, while at the same time fostering a genuine experience of community. By so doing, it creates the environment in which each person in the University shares in common goals and a common commitment to truth, justice and concern for others.

The official seal of Sacred Heart University was introduced on July 22, 1963. The original pen and ink drawing hangs in the diocesan museum at The Catholic Center in Bridgeport. The seal consists of a shield surrounded by the inscription, Universitas Sacri Cordis, in large letters. The shield consists of a dexter — the right-hand side of a shield (the left as seen by the viewer) — and a sinister, the left-hand side of a shield. The dexter impalement bears the jurisdictional arms of the Diocese of Bridgeport. The bridge above waves of flowing water affords an apt expression of the name of the diocese that encompasses Fairfield County, Connecticut, where Sacred Heart University is located. The bridge represents service, which forges strong bonds of understanding and unity between diverse constituencies, while the vivifying water symbolizes the “port” by which new knowledge and ideas energize the scholars who commit themselves to the disciplines of academic inquiry. The Cross of Our Faith above the bridge dignifies the other symbols and identifies the University as a community that celebrates the richness of the Catholic intellectual traditions.

The sinister impalement displays the personal coat of arms of the Most Rev. Walter W. Curtis, S.T.D., the founder of Sacred Heart University and the second Bishop of the Diocese of Bridgeport. The central checkered bar, taken from the Curtis family coat of arms, suggests the collaborative nature of the learning community in which each individual member contributes to the integrity of the whole. The two diamond-shaped lozenges, taken from the Costello family shield to honor the Bishop's mother, are placed in the upper portion to highlight the University's two most precious treasures: Love, the compassion of God as symbolized in the Sacred Heart of Jesus, and Truth, the goal of all scholarly activity. The University shield also honors Mary, the Seat of Wisdom, by including the crescent moon, which is the symbol of Our Lady under the title of the Immaculate Conception, chosen to signify the years that Bishop Curtis spent as a professor of moral theology at Immaculate Conception Seminary.

The Mace. During the Middle Ages, the wood mace clad in metal was an effective weapon in battle, but as newer and more powerful military arms developed, it was transformed into a symbol of dignity and authority. The earliest ceremonial maces were borne by bodyguards of 12th-century English and French kings; by the end of the 16th century, they were used widely by officials of English cities and towns. Today, the use of the ceremonial mace is found in the British House of Parliament, carried before ecclesiastical dignitaries and in university and college commencements and convocations. The Sacred Heart University mace, which serves as a visible reminder of the University's history, authority and status, is carried by the president of the University Academic Assembly. In commemoration of Sacred Heart's 50th anniversary, a new mace was commissioned. It is a 54-inch rosewood mace with two three-inch antique silver plated brass medals and brass braiding on a rosewood staff. The new mace signifies the growth of Sacred Heart during the past 50 years, as well as its continued commitment to tradition and academic rigor.

Academic Dress. Tradition holds that the cap and gown were first used in ancient Greece when only youths of wealthy parents or those with patrons attended school. The wise teachers of the time believed that fine clothing and jewels should not be worn by the scholar but rather, that the scholar should wear the garments of the worker. In the United States, the gown commonly worn for both the associate and bachelor's degrees has pointed sleeves (with a slit for the arm). It is designed to be worn closed. The gown for the master's degree has an oblong sleeve, open at the wrist. The gown for the doctoral degree has bell-shaped open sleeves. All gowns are black and without trimming, with the exception of the doctoral gown, which normally is trimmed with velvet, has three bars or chevrons on the sleeves and may be in distinctive color(s) governed by the school granting that degree. The master's and doctoral gowns may be worn open. Upon graduation, students of old carried a mortarboard showing them to be masons of the future destined to build empires or cities or fountains of wisdom on the firm foundation of knowledge. To this day, graduates wear mortarboard caps and gowns, symbolizing that they are builders of the future. The history of the hood, with which degree recipients are invested, dates back to 13th century England. Whether its origin is ecclesiastical or secular has never been settled. Hoods are two-and-one-half feet long for the associate, three feet for the bachelor's, three-and-one-half feet for the master's and four feet for the doctor degree. The hood is lined with the colors of the institution — red and white, in the case of Sacred Heart University. The color of the trim indicates the academic degree: white for arts, letters and humanities (B.A.), golden yellow for science (B.S.). The hoods of those with graduate degrees, as well as the tassels on the mortarboards of the undergraduates, are often in the color associated with the academic field of specialization, as follows:

WHITE Arts, Letters and Humanities	APRICOT Nursing
DRAW Business	SLATE BLUE Occupational Therapy
LIGHT BLUE Education	DARK BLUE Philosophy
BROWN Fine Arts	TEAL Physical Therapy
PURPLE Law	GOLDEN YELLOW Science
CRIMSON Media Studies	CITRON Sociology, Social Work and Criminal Justice

DR. VICTORIA SWEET

Associate professor of Medicine at the University of California

Victoria Sweet, former award-winning historian and associate professor of medicine at the University of California, practiced medicine for 20 years at Laguna Honda Hospital in San Francisco, where she began writing. In her first book, God's Hotel: A Doctor, a Hospital, and a Pilgrimage to the Heart of Medicine (Riverhead, 2012), she laid out her evidence for some new ideas about medicine and health care in this country.

Sweet believes that medicine works best—that is, arrives at the right diagnosis and the right treatment for the least cost—when the doctor pays attention not only to the patient, but also to what's around the patient. She calls this approach “Slow Medicine,” and believes that, put into wider practice, it would be more satisfying for patient and doctor and also less expensive. Her Slow Medicine Clinic and ideas for a proof of principle—Concierge Practice for the Sick Poor—are conceived to show this.

She is a Guggenheim Fellow and is working on her next book, Slow Medicine: Healing in an Age of Technology. She is also part of a working group for the Institute for Slow Medicine at UCSF.

Sweet speaks frequently to medical professionals and the public about Slow Medicine and related topics. Her published work also includes a book on the 12th-century mystic and medical practitioner, Hildegard of Bingen, Rooted in the Earth, Rooted in the Sky: Hildegard of Bingen and Premodern Medicine (Routledge, 2006), and the prize-winning essay, “Hildegard of Bingen and the Greening of Medieval Medicine.” (Bulletin of the History of Medicine, 1999.)

R. BRADFORD EVANS

Senior adviser at Morgan Stanley

Brad Evans is a senior adviser of Morgan Stanley. He is responsible for managing certain client relationships for the firm, as well as advising companies on significant strategic transactions. He joined Morgan Stanley in 1970, became a vice president in 1976, was elected a managing director in 1979 and a vice chairman in 2000. During his career he has served as co-head of Morgan Stanley's Mergers and Acquisitions Department and head of the firm's European Investment Banking business, based in London. He became senior adviser in 2009.

Evans is a 1964 graduate of Dartmouth College. Following his graduation, he served as an officer in the U.S. Navy for four years. He attended Columbia Business School earning an M.B.A. in 1970. He served as a member of the Dartmouth Board of Trustees from 2003 to 2012 and currently is the chair of the President's Leadership Council at Dartmouth. He is also a member of the Board of Overseers of the Columbia Business School.

Long interested in inner city education, Evans and his wife Barbara devote their time and financial support to both public and Catholic schools in Bridgeport and New York City. He is co-founder and the co-chair of the Board of Horizons at Sacred Heart University, a member of the Board of the Catholic Academy of Bridgeport and a member of the Board of Wakeman Boys & Girls Club, with clubhouses in both Fairfield and Bridgeport.

The couple lives in New York City. They have three children and five grandchildren.

SENIOR CLASS GIFT CAMPAIGN

Thank you to members of the Class of 2016 who made a contribution to the Forever Pioneers Senior Class Gift Campaign. This year, more than 1,000 Sacred Heart undergraduate students set a new fundraising benchmark by collectively donating more than $20,000 for the first time in University history. Led by seniors making gifts of $20.16 in honor of their graduation year, the philanthropic spirit across campus is vibrant as students give back to the things that matter most to them including scholarships, athletic teams, student programming, academic enrichment opportunities, community service initiatives and much more.

Best of luck to all of you in the next chapter of your lives. We hope you will always consider Sacred Heart University your home away from home and will visit often.
