The University

The Name. Sacred Heart University was founded in 1963 by the Most Rev. Walter W. Curtis, S.T.D., the second Bishop of the Diocese of Bridgeport, to provide an institution of higher education that would serve the needs of the people of the diocese and region, regardless of their sex, race, creed or religion. In October 1962, Bishop Curtis announced both the plan to open a college the following September, and its name, "Sacred Heart." The choice of name had a dual origin: it was the name of the Bishop's first pastorate in Bloomfield, N.J., and was a pledge from the Bishop attesting to the value of such an institution.

The Mission. Sacred Heart University is a coeducational, independent, comprehensive institution of higher learning in the Catholic intellectual tradition whose primary objective is to prepare men and women to live in and make their contributions to the human community. The University aims to assist in the development of people who are knowledgeable of self, rooted in faith, educated in mind, compassionate in heart, responsive to social and civic obligations and able to respond to an ever-changing world. It does this by calling forth the intellectual potential of its students, nurturing each one's spiritual and moral growth and deepening in them a sense of social responsibility. The University is committed to combining education for life with preparation for professional excellence. Sacred Heart University is Catholic in tradition and spirit. As a Catholic university, it seeks to play its appropriate role in the modern world. It exemplifies in its life the Judeo-Christian values of the God-given freedom and dignity of every human person. Inspired by the ecumenical spirit of the Second Vatican Council, Sacred Heart University welcomes men and women of all religious traditions and beliefs who share its concerns for truth, scholarship, the dignity of the human person, freedom and the betterment of human society. It values religious diversity as enhancing the University community and creating opportunities for dialogue in the common search for truth. Through its curricular and co-curricular activities and campus ministry programs, the University provides the context in which students have the opportunity to appropriate in a critical fashion their own religious traditions. Sacred Heart University challenges its students to think critically, analyze carefully, evaluate with a sense of justice and proportion and convey conclusions in an intelligible and articulate fashion. The University provides the environment in which its students can develop the aesthetic dimension of life by nurturing their abilities to imagine, create and appreciate. It assists students to acquire a rich understanding of their own cultural and family heritages so as to assume their responsibilities as conveyors and creators of culture and family. As a community of teachers and scholars, Sacred Heart University exists for the pursuit of truth. It joins with other colleges and universities in the task of expanding human knowledge and deepening human understanding. It encourages and supports the scholarly and artistic work of its faculty and students. Further, it has a responsibility to share its resources and its special gifts and talents for the betterment of the human community. All members of the University community are strongly encouraged to participate in the wider community through service to others, especially the poor. From its founding, the University has been recognized for its caring approach to students. This approach expresses the University's belief that each student is born with a unique set of qualities and skills. It respects the personal and academic freedom of each of its members, while at the same time fostering a genuine experience of community. By so doing, it creates the environment in which each person in the University shares in common goals and a common commitment to truth, justice and concern for others.

The official seal of Sacred Heart University was introduced on July 22, 1963. The original pen and ink hangs in the diocesan museum at The Catholic Center in Bridgeport. The seal consists of a shield surrounded by the inscription, Universitas Sacri Cordis, in large letters. The shield consists of a dexter — the right-hand side of a shield (the left as seen by the viewer)— and a sinister, the left-hand side of a shield. The dexter impalement bears the jurisdictional arms of the Diocese of Bridgeport. The bridge above waves of flowing water affords an apt expression of the name of the diocese that encompasses Fairfield County, Connecticut, where Sacred Heart University is located. The bridge represents service, which forges strong bonds of understanding and unity between diverse constituencies, while the vivifying water symbolizes the "port" by which new knowledge and ideas energize the scholars who commit themselves to the disciplines of academic inquiry. The Cross of Our Faith above the bridge dignifies the other symbols and identifies the University as a community that celebrates the richness of the Catholic intellectual tradition.

The sinister impalement displays the personal coat of arms of the Most Rev. Walter W. Curtis, S.T.D., the founder of Sacred Heart University and the second Bishop of the Diocese of Bridgeport. The central checkered bar, taken from the Curtis family coat of arms, suggests the collaborative nature of the learning community in which each individual member contributes to the integrity of the whole. The two diamond-shaped lozenges, taken from the Costello family shield to honor the Bishop's mother, are placed in the upper portion to highlight the University's two most precious treasures: Love, the compassion of God as symbolized in the Sacred Heart of Jesus, and Truth, the goal of all scholarly activity. The University shield also honors Mary, the Seat of Wisdom, by including the crescent moon, which is the symbol of Our Lady under the title of the Immaculate Conception, chosen to signify the years that Bishop Curtis spent as a professor of moral theology at Immaculate Conception Seminary.

The Mace. During the Middle Ages, the wood mace clad in metal was an effective weapon in battle, but as newer and more powerful military arms developed, it was transformed into a symbol of dignity and authority. The earliest ceremonial maces were borne by bodyguards of 12th-century English and French kings; by the end of the 16th century, they were used widely by officials of English cities and towns. Today, the use of the ceremonial mace is found in the British House of Parliament, carried before ecclesiastical dignitaries and in university and college commencements and convocations. The Sacred Heart University Mace is carried by the president of the University Academic Assembly and represents the President's responsibility as the chief academic and administrative officer of the University. Commissioned by then-President Anthony J. Cernera, Ph.D., to mark the University's 25th commencement, the mace is made of rosewood, mahogany, walnut and bronze.

Academic Dress. Tradition holds that the cap and gown were first used in ancient Greece when only youths of wealthy parents or those with patrons attended school. The wise teachers of the time believed that fine clothing and jewels should not be worn by the scholar but rather, that the scholar should wear the garments of the worker. In the United States, the gown commonly worn for both the associate and bachelor's degrees has pointed sleeves (with a slit for the arm). It is designed to be worn closed. The gown for the master's degree has an oblong sleeve, open at the wrist. The gown for the doctoral degree has bell-shaped open sleeves. All gowns are black and without trimming with the exception of the doctoral gown, which normally is trimmed with velvet, has three bars or chevrons on the sleeves and may be in distinctive color(s) governed by the school granting that degree. The master's and doctoral gowns may be worn open. Upon graduation, students of old carried a mortarboard showing them to be masons of the future destined to build empires or cities or fountains of wisdom on the firm foundation of knowledge. To this day, graduates wear mortarboard caps and gowns, symbolizing that they are builders of the future. The history of the hood, with which degree recipients are invested, dates back to 13th century England. Whether its origin is ecclesiastical or secular has never been settled. Hoods are two-and-one-half feet long for the associate, three feet for the bachelor's, three-and-one-half feet for the master's and four feet for the doctor's degree. The hood is lined with the colors of the institution — red and white, in the case of Sacred Heart University. The color of the trim indicates the academic degree — white for arts, letters and humanities (B.A.), golden yellow for science (B.S.). The hoods of those with graduate degrees, as well as the tassels on the mortarboards of the undergraduates, are often in the color associated with the academic field of specialization, as follows:

White Arts, Letters and Humanities	Slate Blue Occupational Therapy
Drab Business	Dark Blue Philosophy
Light Blue Education	Teal Physical Therapy
Brown Fine Arts	Golden Yellow Science
Purple Law	Citron Sociology, Social Work and Criminal Justice
Crimson Media Studies	Scarlet Theology and Religious Studies
Pink Music
Apricot Nursing

E. PATRICIA LLODRA

First Selectman of Newtown

E. Patricia Llodra is currently first selectman of the Town of Newtown, Connecticut. She previously served on Newtown's Board of Legislators and Board of Education. During her career as an educator, she has been a math and computer science teacher, principal of Northwestern Region School, interim principal of Newtown High School, assistant executive director of the Connecticut Association of Schools and director of leadership development and executive coaching for the Council for the Advancement of Standards (CAS) and the Connecticut State Department of Education. Her many awards include the Excellence in Education Award, Connecticut High School Principal of the Year, PIMMS Fellow at Wesleyan for a project to increase the mastery of math and science, the Distinguished Service Award for Outstanding Young Woman from the Newtown Jaycees and many more. She is the co-author of Common Core of Leading, funded by The Wallace Foundation. She holds a bachelor's degree in psychology, a master's in mathematics/education, a certificate of advanced study in supervision/evaluation and a 6th-year certificate. She has also done some doctoral studies.

TERRY EAGLETON

Literary Scholar and Cultural Theorist

Terry Eagleton, literary scholar and cultural theorist, grew up in humble circumstances as part of a working-class Irish Catholic family in Salford, England. He served as an altar boy at a nearby Carmelite convent and at various points in his life considered the priesthood. He was the first in his family to gain entrance to a good grammar school and go on to college. While perhaps most recognized for literary criticism, Eagleton is also known for his work in cultural theory, religion, politics and history. He is the author of over 40 academic books, in addition to plays, film and television scripts, a memoir and the novel Saints and Scholars. His most recent books are Reason, Faith, and Revolution: Reflections on the God Debate and On Evil, published by Yale University Press in 2009 and 2010. He is currently Excellence in English Distinguished Visitor at the University of Notre Dame. Formerly the John Edward Taylor Professor of English Literature at the University of Manchester and the Thomas Warton Professor of English Literature at the University of Oxford, Eagleton has held visiting appointments at a number of universities around the world. He is a fellow of the British Academy and the English Association. He earned his master's degree from De La Salle College and his doctorate from Trinity College in Cambridge, England.

Senior Class Gift Campaign

Thank you to the members of the Class of 2013 who made a contribution to the Senior Class Gift Campaign. Together, the graduates listed below gave close to $5,300 toward Sacred Heart University, which supports scholarships, lab equipment, student programming, community service initiatives and much more. Best of luck to all of you in the next chapter of your lives. We hope you will always consider Sacred Heart University your home away from home and will visit often.
