My Dear Friend.

Your enclosed speeches of Bish. Matz & famous Barry at hand. I thank you very much.

I shall view them as mementos - I am very well, & our trip & its coincidents are still our topic - when we of Indiana meet. I was not at the State Convention; but the Boys redeemed me - I was unanimously set in the new office of V. Pres. that takes me to St Louis, - although I'd go anyway. The women dept. of Ind. A. O. H. had a spat - the election of State Pres. was a tie on 1st ballot, and Mrs McKellis, presiding - having also voted, cast the deciding vote in favor of her chum, Mrs. McRady of Penn - and the younger element, seeking the election of Julia Mahony - Cried "Point & Order" "Point & Order" - but I guess they'll abide the "Golden Defeat" - How are you anyhow? I don't hear any noises from Syracuse - nor from Richmond - Is there going to be organizers? I don't think it's going to be a paying institution -

Good Bye - Yours fraternally,
Rev. M. J. Ryan.

My Dear Friend.

I am reminded that I ought to drop you a line. I read from "Pompospiece" of May Hibernian - published at Wash. D. C. that you were told enough & not add your "John Hancock" to that letter of Bro. Dolan.

I don't know your motives; but I am sure you looked at it, in the wise glass of experience, & refrained, just because of almost the very thing that Dolan intended; viz, to keep out of brawls & contentions from other Societies; but the way Dolan goes at it - is that famous "hammer & tongs." & always gives the other fellow a "quasi-cause" & say the least, to drive you. & in this case it seems Dolan must have read the scolding Kimerly gave him - on the title of "Pope Dolan." & in this way wanted to set himself - martyr-like right in the minds of the boys. - Glad you did not find it proper to sign it. - Also Keating was the boy to withhold - as for the others - there was not enough thought given to it. or else there were fewer still to sign. Hope you are well, as I am - Everything lurch in Indiana, Oh say! I was at the Dedication of World's Fair St. Louis

And, I found so many sleeping, - standing up no hotel accommodations. I fear then is gains, & the awful times ahead for our next Conference. - Now about getting a good start and laying claim to some quiet corner, long in advance - if this should be delegates like me & Darius, then will be no show whatever.

Sincerely Yours,

Rev. Mr. J. B. Byrnes.
