Dear Sir + Bro herewith find enclosed order for thirty three dollars on account rat assessment + Inds of Platte + Douglas County with a membership of 108 members $27.00 assessment $6.00 Inds 3 + 4 quarter 1902
+ 1 + 2 quarter 1903 as I cannot get anything from Dixie that has gone out from us over one year + half or more but now that the weather is getting fine I. P. R. Dr. McCrann thinks that he will be able to get out in the state and do little work as he has been sick all winter with no chance to get out at all but I do think that State should get some assistance with the organizers that are sent out by Nat Body

Mr. James P. Bree,

New Haven, Con.

Dear Sir and Brother:- Complying with your request last month I filled out the enclosed circular; but brother Stafford, now State Secretary, informed me that he had already mailed you a similar report. However, as I have this filled out, I enclose and forward same.

The struggle to build up the order in Nebraska is a difficult task, but we will put fourth our best efforts.

Fraternally yours,

W. D. DeLanney

My dear Sir

Per Sept 17

Your favors also copies of A.O.H. Constitution and Resolutions of last Convention received and extend thanks for same. Would be thankful for about 2 or 3 hundred copies of Jt Meeting report to the Convention as not present. I send you a clipping from today's World Herald giving you our affairs and proceedings of the state Convention. I feel I am up against an awful task. Several years ago we had 22 Counties & 29 divisions in this state.
At the Convention yesterday we find only 3 Counties and 3 divisions. If I can rebuild it I will try and will be thankful for any aid you extend. You will see I am State President.
Fraternally yours

Dear Sir and Bro.

Late in January of this year an application for Bonds reached your office.
The Bonds which were for Treasurer and Sec of Div 3 O. O. H So Omaha Neb reached our ~~eyes~~ all right but the names were inverted So that instead of having J. J. Burr for Sec it was Saul J. Stafford and Rich Vase. Now it appears that our Treasurer S. J. Stafford sent them back to have the mistake corrected and we have heard nothing of them since please inform me as to whether you received the same for Correction or not and when they ~~will~~ ^{should} reach us as the Rev. J. J. is about to declare our officers Recant if they are not forthcoming.
