Dear Sir & Bro,

I enclose herewith the Annual Report for Texas for year ending Dec: 31-1902 and regret that it should be so late in reaching you. In fact I thought the State Secty had sent it off long ago without waiting for my signature. I find that the State President is very much handicapped in not being able to keep up with the condition of affairs in his State there being no provision for systematic reports from State Secty to State Pres. Of course a great deal depends on the Secty.

The Mase for current quarter has not reached me yet.

Yours fraternally

Dear Sir & Bro.

Allow me first to congratulate you on your re-election.

I want about 100 copies of the Reports of Natl Pres.
Secty & Treas. for use at our State Convention on 18th inst.

If it is possible to have a few copies of the revised Constitution by that time I would be ever so much obliged.
We want to revise our State By-Laws and the notes taken at the Natl Convention on changes in the Constitution are too meagre to be relied on.

I enjoyed the Convention immensely and hope to meet you two years hence in St Louis.

Dear Sir and Bro

if it is not the wish of A Div to send their Div President as a Delegate to State Convention, has said Div power to Elect another Delegate in her stead? and would that Election be legal our Constitution and by laws are not clear on that point we will say for Instance there are four Leaders nominated to be voted on, the President being one of them, not the President, but Chairman of

The Standing Committee receives A Majority of all votes cast ~~now~~ now I would like to know if that-Election is legal and would that-Delegates Credentials be honored in the Convention, all business being transacted at regular meeting of Div and under proper rules. I am seeking Information on the subject merely to know what is the right-thing to do in such a case if you can furnish such Information it will be gladly received by a puzzled sister I remain fraternally yours
